MASTER YOUR MACHINE IN 90 DAYS
AFFILIATE QUICK START GUIDE

==========

Welcome, Affiliate Partner!

Hi, I'm Jason Bingham, creator and founder of Master Your Machine in 90 Days.

Thank you for joining our affiliate program! I created this course because I saw too many capable adults feeling left behind by technology - and I'm excited to partner with you to help more people gain computer confidence.

This guide will help you get started promoting Master Your Machine in 90 Days and earning 75% commissions ($66.75 per sale).

WHO PROMOTES THIS BEST?

Top-performing affiliates typically have audiences in these niches:
- Senior lifestyle and retirement
- Family and grandparenting
- Personal development for mature adults
- Online safety and security
- Technology for beginners
- Lifelong learning

If your audience includes adults 50+ who want to feel more confident with technology, this course is a perfect fit.

COMMON OBJECTIONS & RESPONSES

Your audience may have concerns. Here's how to address them:

"I'm too old to learn computers"
→ Age has nothing to do with learning ability. This course is designed specifically for adults who didn't grow up with technology. Students in their 60s, 70s, and beyond are succeeding every day.

"It's probably too complicated"
→ That's exactly why this course exists. It starts with "What is a computer?" and builds step-by-step with zero jargon. If you can follow simple instructions, you can do this.

"I'm afraid I'll break something"
→ You can't break your computer by clicking the wrong thing. Modern computers are resilient, and this course teaches you exactly what's safe and what to avoid.

"I don't have time"
→ Lessons take 10-15 minutes per day. That's less time than watching one TV show, and you can go at your own pace.
